

Revenge of the Fallen

Backstory:

The main character once lived in a peace place together with her comrades who are also warriors on that place. She had a nice day to train with her master which she asks to her comrades where are their master which she eventually found him. And they talked about trainings and such until her master suddenly heard of an unrecognized monster which he ran to defend their place until their master was killed defending their hometown. Then she suddenly ran away to her comrades to tell what happened and her comrades said that they will help to defend their hometown and she should run away in order to be save. So, she ran away and she realized that she needs them to defend until she gets back and finds all of her comrades are fallen. So remained in agony and guilt, and now her mission is to slaughter all who attacks her hometown and get the revenge for his fallen comrades and master.